

Slow Cooker

Puzzle Code: 240

Willow: "Can you hurry it up? I'm starving! I said I wanted honey ham like, a decade ago!"

Wendy: "Don't forget about my flower salad! Or the fresh fruit crepes!"

Willow: "I asked first! My food should be cooked before yours!"

Wilson: "In my experience—"

Woodie: "You have no experience."

Wendy: "He has a beard though."

Wilson: "..."

Woodie: "In my actually existent experience, froggle bunwiches are an excellent dish. I'll have one of those by the way."

Willow: "That's disgusting. I'll stick with my choice. Oh, and I also want bacon and eggs. It's been so long I got more hungry."

Wolfgang: "I visited one of those fancy seaside restaurants called Shipwrecked the other day. I had just ordered a nice Surf 'n' Turf when Charlie and her gang mobbed the place. Could you maybe make one of those?"

Wendy: "What's even in that?"

Wilson: "Could I maybe get a stuffed eggplant? And also—"

Wolfgang: "I don't know. Check the recipe."

Wilson: "I also wanted—"

Willow: "AHHHHHHHHHH I'M SO HUNGRYYYYY!!! I WANT AN ENTIRE TURKEY DINNER FOR MYSELF!!!"

Woodie: "Willow, calm down before you light everything on fire. It's not even dusk yet. On that note I'd like waffles too."

Wilson: "As I was trying to say, I also wanted a sweet potato souffle and-- what's that, Wes? Oh. Wes wants some meaty stew, please."

Better get a move on before the hungry kids lose all their sanity. Be careful out there though. Do one thing at a time, don't stay in any one spot for too long, and go as quickly as you can.
